THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1769.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 17.

ON Monday the 10th Inſtant, a Fire broke out in this City, which raged with great Fury for 12 Hours. It burnt for near a Mile in Length, and as it happened near the Hippodrome, St. Sophia, and the Porte, it conſumed a great Number of the principal Palaces, ſome ſmall Moſques, and near 600 Houſes. The Grand Signior was preſent the whole Time, and moſtly on Horſe-back, giving away large Sums of Money.

ROME, July 26. The Harveſt this Year is very plentiful, and Corn bears a very moderate Price. We have likewiſe Reaſon to hope that the Vintage will prove fine.

VIENNA, July 26. This Morning, at Nine o'Clock, the Emperor arrived at the Caſtle of Sconbrun, in perfect Health, from the Tour which he has made through the different States of Italy.

WARSAW, July 29. Several Letters from Podolia, confirm the total Defeat of the Turks under the Seraſkier; the Trenches before Choczim were opened by the Ruſſians the Day after the Victory. The Diſturbances in the Ottoman Army encreaſe every Day. A great Miſunderſtanding ſubſiſts between the Grand Viſir and his principal Officers; his Troops are filing off towards Bender. The Janizaries have mutinied, and murdered one of their Pachas.

The melancholy Situation to which this Kingdom is reduced is ſtill the ſame. The Confederates continue to commit all Kinds of Exceſſes, the Conſequences of which will long be felt by the Provinces where they are, or have been. According to Advices from Lithuania, their Number is much diminiſhed in that Grand Duchy, ſince the Corps of the Sieur Bierzynſki was defeated by Col. Gallitzin. This Bierzynſki is the Perſon who carried off ſome Hundreds of the Troops in the Pay of Prince Radzivil. He is actually on the March towards Little-Poland.

By the laſt Letters from Conſtantinople we learn, that the Grand Signior has publiſhed and diſtributed to the Foreign Miniſters there, a Manifeſto, by which he declares War againſt all the Polanders, who favour the Views and Undertakings of Ruſſia.

Aug. 2. No Succours can be ſent from the Grand Turkiſh Army to Choczim, as Prince Gallitzin's Army, and that of General Romanzow, are poſted on each Side of the Nieſter, in ſuch a Manner, that every Reinforcement, deſtined by the Turks for the Garriſon of that Fortreſs, muſt paſs between the Two Ruſſian Corps.

Aug. 5. We learn from Choczim, that the Artillery of the beſieged there is ſo badly ſerved, that it annoyed the Ruſſians very little; nevertheleſs that Prince Repnin, for fear of being obliged to raiſe the Siege of the Place through Want of Proviſions, had declared in a Council of War, in Oppoſition to all the other general Officers, for an Aſſault. The ſame Advices add, that upwards of 30,000 Greeks waited only an Opportunity of joining the Ruſſians; that a Number of them from Tartary, had effected their Junction; and that the News of the Seraſkier's Defeat had ſpread Conſternation into the Grand Viſir's Army.

NAPLES, Aug. 1. The Harveſt has been very plentiful this Year in every Part of his Sicilian Majeſty's Dominions.

PARIS, Aug. 18. A Veſſel, which arrived at Havre a few Days ago from St. Domingo, in the dead of Night landed ſeveral Paſſengers, who were received by Exempts, that were waiting in Poſt-Chaiſes to receive them with ſome Detachments of the Marechauſſe; the next Day the Veſſel diſappeared, and no Perſon was to be found that came from on board her. This Myſtery, joined to the Silence of Adminiſtration on the Event, makes it conjectured, that the Priſoners were ſome ſeditious People from St. Domingo, whom the Governor had thought proper to ſecure in that Manner; and ſome Politicians carry their Suſpicions ſo far, as to imagine they formed the entire Council of the Cape.

From the Frontiers of PODOLIA, July 20. According to ſeveral Advices received from the Neighbourhood of Kaminiec, the late Expedition of the Ruſſians, on the other Side the Nieſter, has not been attended with better Succeſs than their former one. We learn, in general, that the Ruſſians paſſed that River the 13th, the Paſſage of which was but weakly oppoſed by the Turks; that the Turkiſh Infantry were encamped in their Intrenchments about Choczim, which the Ruſſians attacked, but that the Cannon from the Ramparts, and from the Turkiſh Foot, had killed a vaſt Number of the Aſſailants, which had made them at length retire; that the Turkiſh Horſe, which were poſted in a neighbouring Wood, had greatly harraſſed the Ruſſians; that ſeveral Reinforcements had joined the Grand Viſir, after ſkirmiſhing with different Bodies of Prince Gallitzin's Army, in which vaſt Numbers fell on both Sides; but that the Ruſſian General had at length been obliged to repaſs the Nieſter the 17th Inſtant, whoſe advanced Guard, under the Command of Prince Proſorowſki, was encamped at Two Leagues Diſtance from Kaminiec.

LONDON,

Aug. 15. The Miniſtry have come to a Reſolution, to appoint no provincial Governors, merely for the political Intereſt of themſelves, or Friends; having, by late Experience, found how neceſſary it is, for the Service of the Nation, not to be ſwayed by any Thing, but perſonal Merit in ſuch high Appointments.

On Friday, a Turtle of a very conſiderable Weight, drawn by Six Horſes, and a Puncheon of Rum, were ſent as a Preſent to his Grace the Duke of Grafton, from Sir Francis Bernard, in America.

Aug. 19. We are told by Letters from Berlin, that it is preſumed, the intended Interview between the Emperor of Germany, and the King of Pruſſia, has principally for its Object, the concerting efficacious Meaſures for putting an End to the Troubles of Poland; wherein both thoſe Monarchs are eſſentially intereſted, from the Vicinity of Part of their reſpective Dominions.

Letters directly from Conſtantinople aſſure, that the Ottoman Porte, has declared War againſt the King of Poland.

The ſame Letters ſay, that Aley Bey had ſo happily conducted the War againſt the Bey of Upper-Egypt, that he had obliged him to defray the whole Expence of it, and to cede to him a large Extent of Country well peopled.

Extract of a Letter from Devizes, Auguſt 17.

"Yeſterday was held here, a numerous Meeting of the Freeholders of the County of Wilts. About 12 o'Clock, William Talk, Eſq; Sheriff for the County, took the Chair, and acquainted the Gentlemen, that the preſent Meeting was in Conſequence of an Adverteſment publiſhed at the unanimous Requeſt of the Grand Jury at Saliſbury, and if any Gentlemen preſent had any Thing to offer, they were at Liberty ſo to do. In Conſequence of which, Mr. Talbot informed the Gentlemen, that he had drawn up the Heads of a Petition, and if they would give him leave, he would read the ſame for their Approbation, which he did, the Purport of which was, "That they concurred in the Grievances ſet forth in other Petitions already preſented to the Throne, and in which they hoped to be redreſſed, particularly in the Two following, viz. The Right of Elections, in impoſing a Member on the County of Middleſex not duly elected; and the pardoning a Convict for Murder at a late Election, after being legally found Guilty by a Jury of the Country."—The Petition was agreed to, and ordered to be ingroſſed, and the ſame is to be ſent to the ſeveral Market-Towns in the County, to be ſigned by the Freeholders not preſent at this Meeting; and when ſigned, it will be preſented by the High Sheriff, and the Members for the County.—The Speakers on this Occaſion were, Mr. Popham, Mr. Beckford, Mr. Talbot, Mr. Temple, Mr. Penruddick, Mr. Huſſey, Mr. Awdry, and the Hon. Mr. Fox.

Aug. 21. It is publicly rumoured, that a noble Duke now in Northamptonſhire, ſtrongly enforced at a late Meeting, held in Town, the Expediency of Col. Luttrell's accepting a Place to vacate his Seat in Parliament, and Mr. Wilkes at the Expiration of his Confinement, to be admitted to take his Seat for Middleſex, it being the only Means to appeaſe the Minds of the People, and to cauſe the preſent Mode of petitioning entirely to ſubſide. He recommended other ſalutary Meaſures, very likely to reſtore Peace and good Order in the People, and Unanimity among the Great.

A Letter from Leghorn mentions, that it is thought the Malecontents of Corſica, only wait for the Re-embarkation of the French Troops, on their return home, to break out into open Hoſtilities.

Aug. 24. This Day the following Gentlemen waited on his Majeſty at St. James's, with the Petition from the Freeholders of the County of Surry: The Hon. Peter King, Sir Francis Vincent, Bart. Sir Joſ. Mawbey, Bart. Joſeph Martin, Eſq; An. Chapman, Eſq; and Joſeph Clarke, Eſq;—Sir Ant. Abdy, Bart. met the above Gentlemen, previous to their going to Court, at the Thatched-Houſe Tavern; but being greatly indiſpoſed with the Gout, could not attend them to Palace.

On the King's Return from the Drawing-Room, Sir Francis Vincent, Bart. the worthy Repreſentative of the County, preſented the Petition, to his Majeſty, which was moſt graciouſly received, and is as follows:

To the KING's moſt excellent MAJESTY.

The humble PETITION of the FREEHOLDERS of the County of SURRY.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Surry, from a grateful Senſe of the ineſtimable Bleſſings which this Nation has enjoyed under the mild and equal Government of your Majeſty, and your illuſtrious Predeceſſors of the Houſe of Brunſwick, and from a ſteady Attachment, Zeal, and Affection to your Royal Perſon, and Family, think it our Duty to join with our injured Fellow-Subjects, in humbly offering to your Majeſty our Complaints of the Meaſures adopted by pernicious Counſellors, who, we apprehend, have countenanced and adviſed a Violation of the firſt Principle of the Conſtitution.

The Right of Election in the People, which is the Security of all their Rights, is alſo the Foundation of your Majeſty's: We cannot therefore forbear being alarmed, when we ſee that firſt Principle violated in the late Inſtance of the Middleſex Election.

We have ſeen, Royal Sire, with great Concern, an Application of the Freeholders of the County of Middleſex, made by their humble Petition to the Houſe of Commons, complaining of that Meaſure, defeated; and it is with the utmoſt Reluctance we now find ourſelves conſtrained to appeal to your ſacred Perſon, from whoſe Juſtice and Goodneſs we can alone hope for Redreſs.

We therefore moſt humbly implore your Majeſty, that you would be graciouſly pleaſed to give us ſuch Relief as to your Royal Wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet, by an Exertion of that Prerogative which the Conſtitution has ſo properly placed in your Majeſty's Hands. And your Majeſty's Petitioners ſhall ever pray, &c."

The Petition was ſigned by 1494 Freeholders, which Number was deemed ſufficient, as ſeveral Gentlemen, who were appointed to preſent it, were obliged, next Week, to go into diſtant Parts of the Kingdom, and as they are certainly a great Majority of the Freeholders reſident in the County.

In ſeveral Parts of the County the Petition was never once offered, owing to the want of Time for that Purpoſe.

The general Aſſembly of moſt of the great Officers of State, held Yeſterday at St. James's, it is now ſaid, was to have a Conference relative to the Surry Petition, which was preſented this Day to his Majeſty at St. James's Palace.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, Auguſt 23.

"Yeſterday ſailed out of this Harbour, the Frederick, Nicholſon, for Maryland. This Morning arrived, and came into Harbour, the Ship Britannia, Hardie, from Carolina, being the Ship that was on the Rock, but is ſince got off without any Damage."

Aug. 26. We hear that the Parliament will meet for Diſpatch of Buſineſs in November.

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar, dated July 25, 1769.

"A Report prevails here, that General Paoli is at Leghorn, with a conſiderable Number of his Followers, and that his Brother Clement in Corſica, is in ſuch a Situation, as to be likely to give the French much Trouble, they not being able to get any Water in that Part of the Iſland, where they are at preſent."

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Auguſt 14.

"It is ſaid that the King doth not think another Meeting of the Eaſt-India Company neceſſary, and many People are of Opinion, that the Miniſtry will perſiſt in the Reſolution of ſuſpending the excluſive Privilege of that Company. A Report however prevails, that the States General of Holland have repreſented to the King, that good Policy required that his Majeſty ſhould ſupport the Company, as the only Means to counterbalance the great Weight of England in the Eaſt-India Trade, which would ſoon be totally engroſſed by the Engliſh, if private Perſons attempted to carry it on upon their own Bottoms."

Letters from Gibraltar mention, that ſince the enterpriſing King of Morocco has taken the Portugueſe Fortreſs at Mazagan, he has repaired the Baſtions of that Place, and has encreaſed his Army to near 80000 Men; which obſerve the ſtricteſt Diſcipline, in Conſequence of the Regulations introduced among his Troops, ſeveral of whom are Officers of conſiderable Rank in his Service. The ſame Letters add, that the above Monarch daily employs ſeveral Thouſand Perſons in fitting for the Sea a numerous Squadron of Gallies, by which it is conjectured an undertaking is meditating by ſome French, Spaniſh, and Iriſh Renegadoes, againſt ſome of the Powers who have Settlements in the Mediterranean.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, Auguſt 22.

"The French Ambaſſador at this Court has preſented a Memorial to the following Purport: "The underſigned has the Honour to communicate to your High Mightineſſes, by order of the King his Maſter, that in Conſequence of the Treaty concluded with the Republic of Genoa, the 15th of May, 1768, by which that Republic cedes to France the entire Sovereignty of Corſica, his Majeſty, after having driven out the late Rebels to the ſaid Republic, took Poſſeſſion of that Iſland, and united it to the other Dominions of his Crown, that all the Ports thereof would, for the future, be under the ſame Government as that of France, and under the ſame Regulations in reſpect to Trade with foreign Powers, and that it is the King's Orders, that that Iſland ſhall contribute, as much as poſſible, to increaſe the Union and mutual Service between France and Holland.

"After theſe Aſſurances, his Majeſty flatters himſelf, that their High Mightineſſes, in caſe any Ships ſhould for the future appear under Corſican Colours, will look upon them as Pirates, and not ſuffer them to take refuge in the Ports of their Republic; the Regard that Sovereigns owe to each other, not permitting them to grant to Rebels an Aſylum in their Dominions, &c."

Aug. 29. A Letter from Paris, dated Auguſt 18, ſays, "Notwithſtanding all the Arguments for and againſt diſſolving the Eaſt-India Company, it is ſaid, that an Edict is in the Preſs for ſuſpending their Trade for a Year, which ſeems to be a Prelude to their total Deſtruction."

Friday Night there was a numerous and reſpectable Meeting of the Electors of Weſtminſter, at the Globe-Tavern in the Strand, when the Draft of a Petition to his Majeſty was read, and unanimouſly approved of. It is confined to the Caſe of Middleſex; and the Prayer is ſaid to conſiſt of a Requeſt, that his Majeſty would be graciouſly pleaſed to diſſolve this Parliament, and call another as ſoon as poſſible. One of the Company took Notice of a Reſolution in the Commons Journals, Vol. 13. P. 767. Anno 1701. 14 Will. III. which is in theſe Words: "Reſolved, That it is the undoubted "Right of the People of England to petition or addreſs "the King, for the calling, ſitting or diſſolving of "Parliaments, and for the redreſſing of Grievances."

And on Saturday the following was diſtributed as a Hand-Bill among the Electors of Weſtminſter.

"To the worthy independent Electors of the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter.

"GENTLEMEN,

"You have been called on by public Advertiſements to meet in Weſtminſter-Hall, on Tueſday next, the 29th Inſtant, at 11 o'Clock in the Forenoon, for the Purpoſe of conſidering on a Petition to his Majeſty on the preſent alarming State of the Conſtitution. Every Method has been taken, and will be taken by mean Suggeſtions, falſe Repreſentations, and unfair and undue Influence, to render this Meeting abortive. You are told, that you will not be joined by the ſober or ſenſible, that you will have no Men of Conſequence among you, and that not one Half of the Electors of Weſtminſter will ſign ſuch Petition——BE NOT DECEIVED; it is by ſuch Inſinuations the Enemies to our King and Country mean to effect their Purpoſe, and to keep you at home, by perſuading you that your Neighbour will not attend——Diſappoint their wicked Endeavours——every honeſt Man will be with you, and remember that the honeſt Man is ſober, ſenſible and great. Attend this Meeting, weigh well the Buſineſs of it, and then obey the Dictates of Honour, Conſcience and Love of your Country, her gracious King, Laws and Liberties."

This Day at 11 o'Clock, the Electors of Weſtminſter, to the Number of about Seven Thouſand, aſſembled in Weſtminſter-Hall, to petition his Majeſty for a Redreſs of Grievances. At 12 o'Clock Sir Robert Bernard, Bart. was called to the Chair, which was placed on the Steps of the Court of Common Pleas. Robert Jones, Eſq; moved for the Petition; he expatiated in a moſt ſenſible Manner on the preſent important Criſis, and then ſaid, he had been Chairman of the Committee appointed to draw up the Petition, and that in Conſequence of their Directions he would preſent the ſame to Sir Robert Bernard, who would read it for their Approbation. Accordingly Sir Robert read it, and it was received with unanimous Applauſe. When the Queſtion was put, whether they approved of that Petition, it was carried unanimouſly, and the Electors began immediately to ſign it.

Mr. Almon moved, that the ſame Committee, who had drawn up the Petition, might be appointed to wait on a Number of Gentlemen, requeſting them to attend his Majeſty with the ſaid Petition. This Motion was likewiſe unanimouſly approved.

Mr. Martin then moved, that the Thanks of the Hall be given to Sir Robert Bernard, Bart.

And Mr. Almon alſo moved, that the Thanks of the Hall might be given to Robert Jones, Eſq; who had been Chairman of the Committee.

It is not a little remarkable, that the Chair for the Chairman had been originally placed on the Steps between the Courts of Chancery and the King's-Bench; but the Electors not liking that Situation, deſired it might be placed on the Steps of the Court of Common Pleas, where, they ſaid, General Warrants were firſt condemned.

It is certain that there were at leaſt 7000 Perſons preſent, the greateſt Part of whom were Gentlemen of conſiderable Property; and by Two o'Clock it was conjectured more than 2000 had ſigned.

The Purport of the above Petition was, to requeſt that his Majeſty would diſſolve the preſent Parliament, and call a new one as ſpeedily as poſſible.

Immediately after the Surry Petition had been preſented to the King on Thurſday, a Right Hon. Paymaſter ridiculed the Petition in the Drawing-Room, and enquired of a certain popular Baronet, the Repreſentative of a neighbouring Borough, what were the Objects of it? The latter told him, it was confined to one Point, but complained of pernicious Counſellors, adding, at the ſame Time, that he knew beſt whether he was included in that Number. The Paymaſter ſaid aloud, that a Friend of his had gone to the Place in Southwark, where the Petition was advertiſed to be ſigned, but could ſee only Three Skins of Parchment, without any other Writing on them but Names, and was told that the Petition itſelf was in another Part of the County, ſo that People ſigned without knowing for what. The Baronet told him, his Friend had miſinformed him; there never had been but one Skin in Southwark, and on that the Petition was moſt certainly written. The Paymaſter perſiſted in the Charge, as he was told by a Perſon of Credit, a Friend of his. On which the Baronet told him, he had been miſled, and that his Friend, whoever he was, would not to his, the Baronet's Face, aſſert ſo great a Falſhood; and for the Paymaſter's further Satisfaction, referred him to the Petition juſt delivered in, which conſiſted of Five Skins of Parchment, on each of which he might now ſee the Petition entered at Length. The Paymaſter was ſilenced by this laſt Argument, and the whole Circle of Auditors, who were numerous, were pleaſed with the ſpirited Manner in which the Baronet reſiſted the rough Attack of the Paymaſter. It is hoped that no Attempt is ever made by ſimilar Miſrepreſentations to impoſe on the Royal Ear, by falſe Accounts of the Conduct and Senſe of the People.

ST. JOHN'S, (in ANTIGUA) September 9.

Extract of a Letter from St. Vincents, dated the 26th of Auguſt, 1769.

"The Day before Yeſterday our Guard de Coaſta, on her Cruize between St. Lucia and this Iſland, was attacked by Four Indian Pettiaugers with 19 Men in each. The Caribbes were deſtroyed to a Man, and the Pettiaugers ſunk in the Engagement, with a Loſs of our Side of only Two Men killed and One wounded. The Guard de Coaſta carried only Twelve Men.——Some few Days before this, a Northward Sloop had run aſhore on the windward Part of this Iſland, and the Crew were all cut to Pieces by the Inhabitants there. Capt. Dring ſailed this Morning in ſearch of Four more Pettiaugers, of which he has received Intelligence."

NEW-YORK, October 30.

Yeſterday Sen'night a Meſſenger from Shrewſbury came to Town with the following melancholy Account, viz. That on Friday Evening, the 20th Inſtant, the Wind being Southerly and moderate, and the Weather having been ſome Time very thick and foggy, the Sloop Live Oak, belonging to Mr. Jacobus Van Zant, of this City Merchant, Capt. Foy, Maſter, from Spaniſh St. Domingo, bound in to this Port, being nearer the Land than they imagined, had the Misfortune to run aground on Squan Beach, a little to the Weſtward of Shrewſbury Inlet, where the Veſſel, being deeply laden, and a large Swell from Sea ſetting right on upon the Beach, in a few Thumps went all to Pieces, and was intirely loſt, with all her Cargo which was very valuable, conſiſting of Sugars, Mahogany, &c. and upwards of 20,000 Dollars in Specie: Four of the People only eſcaped with Life, viz. the Mate, Two Seamen and a Spaniſh Merchant, who were caſt aſhore on the Beach, where they found themſelves next Morning, but could give no Account how they got there: They were terribly bruiſed and mangled, eſpecially the Merchant, who was ſtark naked, had his Fleſh miſerably torn, and by lying ſo long in the Water, was like a dead Corps, and ſcarce any Skin left on his Back: The reſt of the People, 14 in Number, were all unfortunately drowned, among whom were Mr. Campbel, Super Cargo of the Veſſel, much lamented by all who knew him, and the Family of the unhappy Spaniſh Merchant, (conſiſting of his Wife, his Son, about 8 Years of Age, and his Daughter a young Lady, of about 16 or 17) who is by this diſtreſſing Stroke of Providence at once deprived of all his Fortune and Family.—Twelve of the People, we hear are ſince taken up and buried on the Beach.

PHILADELPHIA, October 26.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated Aug. 5.

"There is now a general Stagnation of Public Buſineſs. Addreſſes to the King, they ſay, are preparing in all Parts of the Kingdom, and ſome are ſanguine enough to believe that his M——y will lay them before the Parliament, at the Opening of the next Seſſion. Wilkes continues quiet in the King's-Bench, but his Silence is judged to be political. The Majority of the Citizens of London eſpouſe the Cauſe of America very warmly, and it ſeems now a general Opinion, that the Acts, reſpecting the Colonies, will be repealed early in the Seſſion."

Extract of a Letter from London, Aug. 19.

"I have lately been favoured with an Account of a Plan, for conciliating American Affairs, which has been laid before the Miniſtry, and I hear it is approved of. To the beſt of my Remembrance, the Act for obliging Ships from Liſbon, &c. to come to Falmouth, is to be repealed, under certain Regulations; an annual Requiſition from the Provinces, in Lieu of the other Taxes; and a total Suſpenſion, or a Repeal, of thoſe Acts for the Purpoſes of a Revenue, with other conciliating Meaſures are propoſed."

ANNAPOLIS, November 9.

On Tueſday next, the General Aſſembly of this Province are to meet here.

We hear from Baltimore-Town, that on Monday laſt, the ſpacious County Jail lately erected there, was burnt down; but how the Accident happened, we have not yet been able to learn.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in London, to his Friend in this Province, dated Auguſt 12, 1769.

"Your Reſolves of not importing any Goods, is the beſt Mode to get Redreſs, all other Matters are nothing let who will Adviſe; but I ſee there are large Quantities ſtill exported to all Parts of America every Week, for we can ſee the Imports and Exports, which are printed every Day, which every Merchant takes in as do the Coffee-Houſes, here can be no Deception, ſo that if your Reſolves and Actions don't agree, it will be of little Service."

Extract of another Letter from London, of the ſame Date.

"You will hear from all Quarters, the preſent Diſpoſition of the Miniſtry towards America, and of a Plan of Reconciliation being formed, but their Diſpoſition is not, I believe, fixed one Moment, and you may depend on it, that no Plan is yet ſettled. However, keep ſteady to the Spirit, as well as the Letter of your Reſolves, which Neceſſity has compelled you to come to, and the fanciful Ideas of Power, which ſome here have framed, will ſoon vaniſh."

A PARCEL of young, likely, healthy Country-born NEGROES, Men and Women, used to Plantation Business.

(2w) HARRISON LANE.

I HEREBY give Notice to my Creditors, that my Reasons for not complying with their Proposals, are, that my pretended Friends have not complied with their kind Offers, and my Creditors have taken all the Advantages they possibly could to run me to Expences, which have involved me so low in the World, that I cannot commence Law-Suits against such Persons as are justly owing me upwards of Half as much as would discharge my several Creditors Claims, and I have no other Method to obtain my Liberty, than by applying to the next General Assembly of this Province, to pass an Act in my Favour, and by giving up my Estate both Real and Personal to my Creditors, to redeem my Body out of the Jail in Charles County.

(w3) JOSEPH WATERS, Son of JOSEPH.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living on Elk-Ridge, on the 15th of October last, a brown Mulatto Man, named CHARLES FENTON, between 19 and 20 Years of Age, about 5 Feet 8 or 9 Inches high, has a large Scar on the fore Part of his Head, and a down Look when any Ways examined: Had on, and took with him, Two new Osnabrig Shirts, one white ditto, Two Country mill'd Jackets, one Pair of Osnabrig Trousers, a Sagathy Coat, and blue Breeches, Three or Four Pair of Stockings, one Pair of Shoes or Pumps, a new Castor Hat, with sundry other Things.——Whoever takes up said Servant, or secures him, so as the Subscriber may get him again, shall receive, if taken in the Province, Forty Shillings; if brought home, Three Pounds; and, if out of the Province, Five Pounds, paid by (w4) HENRY HOWARD.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

October 30, 1769.

RAN away from the Subscriber, last Sunday Night, an English Convict Servant Man, named JESSE JORDAN, about 25 Years of Age, 5 Feet 11 Inches high, has a pale Complexion, gray Eyes, light fair short Hair, and is by Trade a Shoemaker: Had on, an Osnabrig Shirt, red Breeches, with Trousers over them, Two Jackets, the Under one a knit scarlet, the other a blue flower'd Serge; he also took with him his Shoemakers Tools, and a sorrel Horse, about 14 Hands high, with a white Blaze down his Face, and an old Saddle and Bridle; it is supposed he had a Companion with him, as the Subscriber has also missed a Horse, branded on the near Buttock H. Whoever takes up the said Servant and Horses, and brings them to the Subscriber, living near Annapolis, if taken within the County, Forty Shillings for the Fellow, and Twenty for the Creatures; or if out of the County and brought home, Five Pounds Reward, paid by JOHN HESSELIUS.

I HEREBY give Notice to all my Creditors, that I intend to apply to the next General Assembly of this Province, to pass a Law in my Favour, on delivering up all my Estate, both Real and Personal, to my Creditors, that I may obtain my Liberty, and be discharged from Queen-Anne's County Jail.

JOSEPH GILL.

STOLEN between the 14th and 18th of October, from the Subscriber, a sandy colour'd Broad-Cloth Jacket, with Buttonholes on each Side and bound round with Worsted Binding, a Pair of Buckskin Breeches, remarkable for having Spots of Paint in the Inside of the right Knee; several good Bridles and Girths were also taken, and old ones left in their Place, with sundry trifling Things tied in a Piece of black Cloth, and a Pair of Boots pretty much wore. It would be taken as a very particular Favour, if the Gentlemen who happened to be at Mr. Reynolds's, during the Races, would be kind enough to have their Negroes searched, as it is greatly suspected some of them must have been concerned in the above.

Whoever can give Information of the above Theft, may receive Fifteen Shillings Reward, from

WILLIAM SMITH, Hostler to Mr. Reynolds.

October 25, 1769.

TEN PISTOLES REWARD.

STOLEN the 4th of this Inſtant, at Night, out of Mr. DICK's Stable, at London-Town, a dark brown HORSE, ſuch a Colour as is commonly called black, with a Star in his Forehead, and his Tail nick'd and dock'd, he is partly Engliſh Blood, which is diſcoverable in his Appearance. The Horſe has been uſed to a Carriage, and trots well, that being his natural Gait, but he paces when he is rode, though very aukwardly; his Tail was ſpoil'd in the Nicking, and hangs in a very particular Manner; he has lately been fired in one of his hind Legs, which occaſions one Ancle to be bigger than the other, and his off hind Hoof is very remarkable, being much wore with dragging in his Pace.——Whoever ſecures the Horſe and brings the Thief to Juſtice, ſo that he be convicted, ſhall be paid by me, Ten Piſtoles; or, whoever brings the Horſe, to Mr. Dick, at London-Town, or me at Annapolis, ſhall be rewarded for their Trouble.

ANTHONY STEWART.

N. B. It is ſuppoſed the Horſe was ſtolen by a Fellow, who that ſame Night rob'd Mr. Maybury, of this City, of ſome Money, and Mr. Evit of a Saddle and Bridle: He induced a Boy, who lodged in Mr. Maybury's Shop, to open the Door and let him in, from whence he ſtole the Money, and perſuaded the Boy to go with him, but he left the Boy in Baltimore, who is ſince returned to his Maſter.

To be SOLD, by the Subſcribers, at their Store at Pig-Point, on Patuxent River by Wholeſale,

ABOUT £. 950 firſt Coſt of Goods, for Current Money, Sterling Bills of Exchange, or ſhort Credit, on very reaſonable Terms.
